

“Matchmaking Event 2013”

Czech-Norwegian Research Programme

30-31st May

Norwegian Institute of International Affairs (NUPI), Oslo

International Economics Group

Short About NUPI in General

- Established in 1959 and organized as a state body under the Ministry of Education and Research
- Operates as an independent, non-political instance in all its professional activities
- Norway's leading independent center for research and information on international, political and economic issues, and on areas of central relevance to Norwegian foreign policy
- Interdisciplinary research center, mostly within the social sciences and humanities e.g. political science, sociology, economics

The International Economics Research Group

Main research areas:

1. International trade and economic integration
2. Institutional and development economics
3. Economics of innovation
4. Agricultural and resource economics

New research areas:

1. Energy and environmental economics
2. Peace, conflict and defence economics
3. Economic development in emerging regions

Contact Information:

- Fulvio Castellacci

Professor, Head of the International Economics Research Group

E-mail: fc@nupi.no

Web page: <http://english.nupi.no/>

Representative at the Matchmaking Event in Prague:

- Christine M. Lie

Research Assistant at the International Economics Research Group

E-mail: cml@nupi.no